Long Meadow Ranch
NAPA VALLEY
Cabernet Sauvignon (2012)

Long Meadow Ranch is a 650-acre historic ranch nestled high atop the Mayacamas Mountains above the Napa Valley. They produce award-winning wines and handcrafted extra virgin olive oils - as well as grass-fed beef, eggs, and heirloom fruits and vegetables. The extraordinary food products have been featured by America's top chefs. Ted, Laddie, and Christopher Hall have re-established vineyards first planted on the ranch in the 1870s and have resumed producing estate-bottled wine from the ranch's distinctive mountain "terroir."

Long Meadow Ranch wines are renowned for their elegance and balanced style. Sommeliers at the finest chef-led establishments feature our wines on award-winning lists. Our sustainably farmed vineyards allow us to bring extraordinary flavors and integrity to your table.

Big Table Farm
WILLAMETTE VALLEY
Pinot Noir (2014)

Big Table Farms - Fans of the sophisticated wines of Helen Turley and Sine Qua Non take note: tiny independent ("Indie") Big Table Farm is an Oregon winery you want to know. Big Table Farm co-owner Clare Carver is a farmer, and Big Table is very much a working farm. She raises free-range chickens, pigs, and beef for local sale. The "Big Table" name was inspired by the long table at their house, site of many feasts using the farm's produce and meats.

The use of whole cluster fermentation is the backbone of this wine. Lots of leather and oak spice on the nose. Black cherry, dried cranberry, and pomegranate, as well as cardamom and anise. Palm sugar, hay, clove and sandalwood on the palate. Very fresh and bright, approachable wine.

Soft tannins, and high acid, make this a great food wine.

Ghostwriter Wines
SANTA CRUZ MOUNTAIN
Chardonnay (2014)

Simply put, there is unrealized potential when it comes to wines from the Santa Cruz Mountains. Legends like Martin Ray, Paul Masson, and Chaffee Hall recognized it early enough to make the area one of California's original viticultural areas. The Ghostwriter project is a partnership between the Likitprakongs and the Wilkersons to reach the potential of the area. In early 2008, Brian and Kenny took over the farming on two of the appellation's oldest vineyard sites, the Woodruff Family Vineyard planted to Pinot Noir and Chardonnay and The Aptos Creek Vineyard planted to Pinot Noir. They introduced sustainable farming to the vineyards and carried that through with natural winemaking in the cellar all in an effort to emphasize the sites and their individual terroirs.
